What are people Saying?

Special T Unlimited

4835 Butterfield Road, Hillside

Not using Special T this year for Hillside Youth Baseball uniforms was a BIG mistake we will not make again. I am grateful to Carmen and his team for fixing the mistakes of another company - a true hero for the children of Hillside.

Ken Holland,
President Hillside Baseball, Inc.

March 2011

Dear Friends and Supporters,

As Spring approaches, the Hillside Historical Society has some exhibits planned and a really awesome game night and we wanted you to be the first to know!

Of course we continue to work on the house and we will begin some outside work as weather permits, but we are committed to having exhibits inside and will have the house open for tours beginning in May. Here's a first look at our schedule:

*Sunday May 15, tours at 1 and 2 pm.
and

* Sunday June 12, tours at 1 and 2 pm.

A Historical View of Women's Fashions and Accessories.

General admission: $5.00/Members Free

Free "Ice Cream Social" on the porch.
Friday July 1, 6:00 to 7:30 pm.

Game Night
Wednesday July 20
7-9pm.

$10 Advance Tickets (available at Hillside Village Hall)
$15 at the door

Know a lot about Hillside? Join us for a fun-filled evening and win prizes!

Check these out . . . ^Who was the first Mayor and what years did he serve?
^Remember the Shopping Center? Top number of stores?
^Oldest church in Hillside dates back to what year?

We will put you to the test. Wear appropriate attire for the evening (we are historical) and pit your skills against others at the Historical House. Compete for prizes and have fun! Cash bar and Hot Dogs available for purchase.

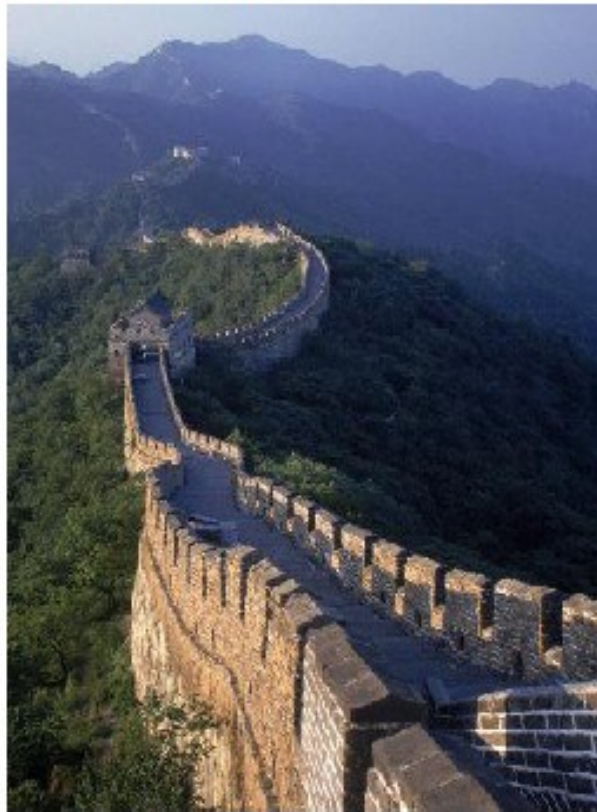

Ticket proceeds to benefit the Historical Site renovation projects.
